Morning Message

Good Morning Reception!

Today is Tuesday 2nd February 2021.

We miss you so much! Please remember, stay safe, stay healthy and keep washing your hands! 😊

Literacy

We are still using as our story for the week. Click here to listen to Miss Houstoun read "Aliens Love Underpants" aloud. Pay close attention to the pictures in the story 😊

Wow! We really enjoyed your videos retelling the story 'Aliens Love Underpants' using our star words, Beginning, middle and end. Today, you will become the ILLUSTRATOR for the story, and you will draw what happens in the beginning of the story. We want you to try and write the word 'beginning' too, but do not worry Miss Houstoun will help you! Click here for your lesson where Miss Houstoun will show you what to do.

Reading

Good job yesterday with the sound or. You have another new sound today. Let's see how you will get on with it. Click here for the Phonics lesson.

Once you have learned your sound, here is your reading text for today.

Mathematics

Today you are going to be finding number bonds for 9.
You can watch the lesson here and click here for your task sheet.

Remember to try to work methodically. If you move one object to the other part you at a time you will find a pattern in the numbers.

How many number bonds for 9 can you find?

Foundation Subject

Topic - Space

Today in topic you will recap everything you have learned in the past 4 weeks. You will then think about the people who go into space – these people are called astronauts. Click here to watch the lesson, where you will see how astronauts perform everyday tasks in space and information on how you can become an astronaut. You will then draw your own astronaut or dress up as an astronaut.

Question for the day

Riddle of the day:

Please be patient, I'm new to the world. I cry a lot so please give me milk.
Everyone smiles at me. What am I?

Find the answer on tomorrow's home learning sheet.

Answer to yesterday's riddle: A heart
