Morning Message

Goooood morning Year 3! We hope that you had an amazing weekend and managed to make the most of the lovely sunshine which we were so lucky to have!

Watch today's morning message here.

Today's riddle: I have keys but no doors. I have space but no rooms. I allow you to enter but you are never able to leave. What am I?

Answer to Friday's riddle: short!

Keep up the great work! You are still making us so proud and we miss you lots 😊
Your Year 3 teachers 😊

Writing

This week, you'll be writing an instruction text which will tell its readers how to set up the perfect post-lockdown party.

Today, you will be writing an introductory statement which will tell the reader what the instructions are about.

Reading

Today's reading is from the book 'Magicat', which is a spooky book about young boys who go trick or treating but get a surprise falling from the sky into one of their buckets… Read on to find out more!

Answers to Friday's reading here.

Mathematics

This week you'll be recapping work on 'Measurements' - this will require your eagle eyes to ensure you're reading the rulers accurately!

Let's start with a riddle: Which is heavier a kilogram of gold or a kilogram of feathers?

I hope you didn't fall for it and say gold! The answer is, of course, that 1 kilogram of gold is just as heavy as 1 kilogram of feathers. They both weigh 1 kilogram!
