

Morning Message

Hello Year Three! As always, we're looking forward to seeing your excellent efforts on See Saw! Remember to take time for yourself – read a book, listen to some music or draw/create a piece of art when you've completed your home learning 😊

Remember to attend your morning briefing at 9:30 and afternoon briefing at 2:50. We love hearing your achievements from the day!

Did you know... this day in history?

1789: The first presidential election in USA – George Washington was later elected the first president!

Writing

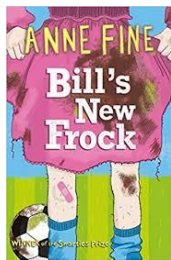

Today we'll be continuing writing our own diary entries – remember to write to your diary in a chatty and informal manner – like a friend! We'll be focusing on adverbs of time and manner, to add more detail to our recounts.

Foundation Subject

In PE we are going to partake in some aerobics. Make sure you are wearing suitable clothing and clear a space to join in. You may want to have some water on hand as we will be moving quite a bit!

You can find the link for the PE video here

If you still have some energy to burn, then you can replay the video, or click here, for some additional exercises.

Question for the day

If you could meet any historical figure, who would it be and why?
What questions would you ask?
