

Morning Message

Happy World Book Day Year Three!

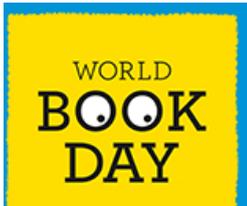

Today is the final day of Home Learning: a HUGE well done for all your hard work and focus over the last 8 weeks. An ENORMOUS thank you to everyone at home who has supported you all during this period.

See you at 8.30am on Monday morning in our classrooms!

World Book Day

The first thing you should do today is our Masked Reader competition. Can you work out who is behind the mask?

There are prizes available for top scores!

Writing

Today we'll be writing why our crazy medicine for farmyard animals is used – we'll be recapping expanded noun phrases today for that purpose

Watch Miss. Choudhry's lesson here

Here is your Do Now and here is your task sheet.

(Pencil and paper is all you will need)

Mathematics

Today is our final session on time and we are going to be continuing our review of what we have learnt in this unit, as well as doing some word problems to practice our skills.

Well Done for all your fantastic Maths work this term: you've worked so hard!

Watch Mrs Turley's lesson here and the task sheet can be found here.

Foundation Subject

Science

Today in science, we will be looking at an optical instrument called a periscope. Later, we will identify how they work and explore some of the ways in which they can be used.

Please watch Miss Williams' video here

The task sheet can be found here

Reading

Today 's session is going to be a chance for us to celebrate some of your favourite books by writing a Book Review. This is a great opportunity to recommend a book to someone: perhaps even one of the teachers!

Watch the lesson here.

For the task, you will need some paper and something to write with or you can use this example of a book review sheet here.

Question for the day

If you could have written any book, what would have it been?

Mrs Turley would have liked to have written 'The Suitcase Kid' by Jacqueline Wilson. Or 'Matilda' by Roald Dahl... or 'Peter Rabbit' by

Beatrix Potter. There are just too many amazing books!
