

Morning Message

Dzień dobry Year 5! (Polish)

Did you know that you can access free books online? Take a look at the Virtual School Library. This week, their author of the week is Jacqueline Wilson and you can read The Story of Tracy Beaker for free! You can find the book, interviews with Jacqueline Wilson and fun activities by clicking here.

Remember to attend your class briefings on teams at 8:00am and 2:00pm.

Have a great day everyone!

Writing

Today you'll be continuing your first-person narrative and using all of those skills you have been perfecting over the past couple of weeks.

Please see your lesson with planning guidance and model write here and the planning and editing sheet here.

Remember to upload your final paragraph on to Seesaw 😊

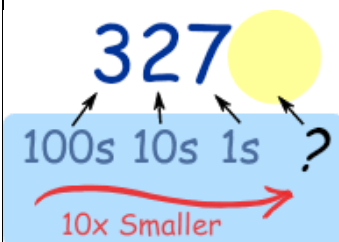

Reading

Today we are going to apply our vocabulary by practicing our 'Day 2 Do Now'. Once that is completed please watch the lesson here, where you will be practicing paired reading before completing the questions afterwards.

It is of vital importance you watch the video in order to be able to self-mark your work afterwards and to practice fluency.

Mathematics

Good Morning, Year 5!

In today's lesson, we are going to play a game creating numbers.

Hope you're ready – enjoy!

Foundation Subject-Geography

Welcome back for another lesson of geography! This week we are looking at Ordnance survey map . Here is your do now and here is your activity sheet.

You must watch the video in order to understand the worksheet and to self-mark your work afterwards 😊

Question for the day

What animal best represents you and why?

Weekly Spellings

Keep up with those spellings. There are some tricky ones this week. Please find the spelling list here.
