

Morning Message

Hola, Year 5!
Need a quick high-energy workout between all that work that you're going to do today?
Try this short, fun Zumba exercise to get your heart pumping that much needed oxygen around your body!
We look forward to seeing you soon.
Have a great day! :o)

Writing

Your writing this week has been fantastic! We can't wait to see what you produce today 😊

In this lesson, you will be focusing on using adverbials, conjunctions and prepositions to give cohesion to your work.

Please find the lesson here and the supporting model and vocabulary here

Reading

Good morning radiant readers! Today we are continuing our study of Floodland Chapter 1 😊 You will be reading aloud today so get your expressive voices warmed up! Here is the Do Now, the lesson is here and the question worksheet here! Enjoy!

Mathematics

Do you like having things in O-R-D-E-R?
Great because today we are learning how to compare and order fractions. Before we start, if you don't have a printout of the questions, please prepare two number lines here. Click here for the lesson, here for the Independent Tasks and here for the answer sheet. Let's GO! Have fun!

Foundation Subject-PE and Phase Assembly

In PE today we are learning the first part of our choreography to RHYTHM NATION by Janet Jackson. Before you start, watch the original music video here.

Here is Miss Webster to teach you the moves, make sure you have plenty of space and plenty of water!
If you want to practice this week the song can be found here. Can't wait to see you on Seesaw!

Please watch this short video on advertising.
Can you find an advertisement somewhere?

Question for the day

Enjoying Floodland?
What if you had a boat?
What would you name it and why?
