

Morning Message

Good morning Year 5!

We hope you had a lovely half-term break and are looking forward to your final term in Year 5.

Here's your beginning of the week video message from your teachers – have a listen before you begin today's work.

Have a great Monday 😊

Writing

This week we will be writing a biography on Ole Kirk Christiansen: watch this week's video here.

We have already studied this genre in Year 5; you may remember our biographies on Miss Trunchbull and Cruella De Vil from earlier in the year.

Today you will be gathering and retrieving information about Ole in preparation for writing his biography later in the week.

Task 1: Watch the first seven minutes of the video then answer these questions. You do not need to print these pages; you can simply write the answers into your book as they will be useful later in the week.

Task 2: Watch the rest of the video then answer the remaining questions about Ole and Lego.

Reading

Today's reading is all about crime and punishment

Please read the extract from 'She's a witch!' and answer the following questions.

Mathematics

Activity 1: Warm up for your maths session by answering these questions here! Check your answers on the second page.

Activity 2: Watch this video about multiplying unit and non-unit fractions by integers. Then answer the questions and check your answers.

Challenge: Ready for even more maths? Answer these challenge questions here.

Outdoor Learning

Read Ms Pritchard's message here to find out all about today's Outdoor Learning lesson.

To help you with making your own nature journal, check out this video from the Natural History Museum.

Enjoy!

PE

What medal will you achieve in today's step-up challenge?

You will feel this one in your legs!

Let us know what award you achieve!

Weekly Spellings

You can find this week's spellings here.

Your challenge is to find a dictionary definition for each word so you can fully understand how to use them in speech and in your writing.
