Writing

This week, our writing will be based on the short film 'The Present'.

The film is about a young boy who seems to prefer his computer games to anything else. Nothing can seem to drag him away.

Until his mother leaves him a gift - an adorable puppy. The boy thinks the puppy is cool until he realises that the puppy has a leg missing.. Gradually, the puppy's determination wins him round and they go out to play...

Task: today, we'll be writing the beginning of a persuasive text with the aim of persuading others to adopt a sick puppy. Have a look at today's model here, and follow the steps to success if you need.
