Dear Parents

As we come to the end of the penultimate week of term, what a busy one it has been, as the photographic record below shows...

Midweek we had the KS1 prison ball tournament arranged by Mr Fernandes.

While yesterday was our Winter Fayre, I'm pleased to share that we raised £2000 and a wonderful time was had by all. Our two school choirs were a delight to listen to, while Santa and his reindeer were very popular visitors, I even popped in to give him my wishlist...

This morning our amazing nursery children performed the nativity, bringing a smile to everyone's faces.

Meanwhile, yesterday afternoon a group of parents came in to run a printing
