

Franklin Times

15th March 2019

Dear Parents,

It has been another busy week here at Franklin with many of the classes using the new library for the first time. Seeing the excitement on the children's faces as they hunt for a book by their favourite author has been truly heartwarming; thank you again for your kind donations that made this possible.

Today's Red Nose Day has been an invaluable opportunity to reflect on our school value of support and how the excitement of us donating and wearing red for the day can have such a meaningful impact on those less fortunate than ourselves.

Have a restful and relaxing weekend,
David Williams
Deputy Headteacher

Year 3 Exeter enjoyed taking their first book out of our new library

Year 1 have been making wind vanes

Nursery have spent time flying their kites in the wind this week

Deputy headteacher's thought for the week:

The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today.

Well done to Year 6 Newcastle Class for 100% attendance!
