19th October 2018

Dear Parents

An exciting end to the half term here at Franklin as we celebrate Hinduism through our RE day today.

Earlier in the week Reception visited Queen's Park and frolicked in the leaves...

Thank you to those who have already donated to the library fund, so far, with gift aid, we have raised £3095 towards stocking the library, 10% of the £30 000 needed, so please give generously via our justgiving page below:

Have a great half term break; children return on Tuesday 30th October at 8.30am.

Warmest regards
Janine Ryan
Principal

Principal's thought for the week:

The Chinese wisely revere the bamboo, the hardiest of grasses, which can bend almost to the ground in a storm and return upright when the gale has passed.
