Dear Parents

I'm always amazed at how much we manage to cram into a week 😊

Below we have pictures of Limerick class enjoying their Viking adventure day on Monday.

Enormous thanks to the 45 parents who sent in letters to support our application to Brent for NCIL funding for the art studio, and to the 329 members of our community who completed our survey! That was a phenomenal example of coordinated community action in a little over 48 hours; I submitted the application this afternoon, so fingers-crossed we are successful, it could be a couple of months before we know.

Attendance

Below is our current attendance, sorry to bore, but as I said last week we need your help to keep above the national average of 96%, a figure for which we are held externally accountable; we have dropped again this week. Please be reassured, having taken advice from Public Health England, if we ever have medical confirmation of virally transmitted diseases, beyond the common cold/flu, we will contact you.
