30th November 2018

Dear Parents

Our Winter Fayre is fast approaching on the 13th December, Santa and his reindeer are busying themselves for the journey, while here at Franklin we are full steam ahead on the logistics with the support of the PTA. You can help by sending in all contributions to the Trussell Trust collection boxes in classes by the 5th December, they will be collected on the 6th, and dropping off all first-quality books for the PTA bookstand to the school office by the 11th December, at the latest.

Timed tickets to see Santa will be available on Wisepay from 5.00pm on Wednesday 5th December, if your child is performing with the choir at 3.45pm, please ensure you book a ticket for after 4.15pm.

Next Friday 7th December will be a non-uniform day, all monies raised will go towards filling our amazing hampers for the Tombola at the Fayre.

This week year one have been visiting the Museum of Childhood, with a focus on toys in the past and now.

On a housekeeping note, wearing wellington boots to school is fine, as long as your child brings a pair of indoor shoes to change into, wearing them throughout the day is not.

Applications for Reception for September 2019 need to be submitted online to Brent by 15th January 2019, if you need any support with this please contact Lourdes in the school office.
