Year two celebrating at the end of their SATs week...

Headteacher's thought for the week:

The sweetest pleasures are those which are hardest won.

All key dates can be found on our website <http://arkfranklinprimary.org/>

Attendance for the week ending the 25th May is disappointing, with nine classes below our target of 96%; we need everyone's help to get back to the 97% average we had at the end of the Autumn term.
