

Morning Message

Happy Friday everyone! A huge Whoooosh and a clap for all your wonderful efforts this week – we wish you all a very well deserved break this weekend and can't wait to see you on Monday!

Remember to attend your class briefings at 9:30am and 2:50pm
If you don't have a link, ask your adult to email

Did you know...? This day in history?

1953 – Sweet rationing ended in Britain! Since the end of WW2, sweets had to be limited due to shortages during the war. Imagine how happy children were now!

Writing

We're at the end of our tale of the Three Little Wolves and Big Bad Pig! What final plan did your Pig concoct, and how does it go wrong? Let's use alliteration to jazz up our writing!

Reading

Today you will be completing a cold comprehension task. A poem has been selected for you to read. Once you have read the poem and watched the video, you can answer the comprehension questions about the text.

You can find the video for the lesson here

You can access the text and comprehension questions here

Mathematics

Well Done for another fantastic week of Maths! Today's lesson will focus on how we can use our existing times table knowledge in looking at the 6 times table!

Get a pen/pencil and some paper ready: you can watch the lesson here.
The task sheet can be found here.

If you would like some more practice of your 6 times tables and get a workout at the same time, check out this video here!
